Procera AVH is a nutritional supplement that helps support brain health and cognitive function.

Need Brain Health Support?

Procera's cognitive supplements have been carefully researched and formulated for the health of your brain. Procera AVH's unique cognitive blend supports key neurotransmitters and provides vital neuroprotection.†

Derived From Natural Ingredients

Acetyl-L-Carnitine (ALC)

Although the human body manufactures some ALC, it decreases with age. ALC provides neurotransmitter support.†

Huperzine A

Helps support levels of Acetylcholine, a key neurotransmitter used by the body to improve healthy brain function.†
