FIGHT POVERTY sales go to women-led businesses, to support communities, especially those that source and make some of the key ingredients in SheaMoisture products. We help fund training and infrastructure to help them manufacture their own high quality goods in their own countries, and get fair prices for their goods and labor. This helps them to earn a better living and support their families, making a better life possible within their communities.

10% COMMUNITY COMMERCE products, or to support the Soffi Tucker Foundation.

We founded Community Commerce to support these communities, especially those that source and make some of the key ingredients in SheaMoisture products. We help fund training and infrastructure to help them manufacture their own high quality goods in their own countries, and get fair prices for their goods and labor. This helps them to earn a better living and support their families, making a better life possible within their communities.

It's not a donation. It's an investment in a fairer world.
