

Directions: Add 1/2 teaspoon or more to a cup of hot water. Stir and strain. Drink hot or cold. Add raw honey, if desired (wild oregano honey is best). With whole food infusions you get all the nutrients—no teabags, no waste.

Mega Orega Tea infusion is pure power from sun-charged wild oregano, the whole food way to get the power of wild oregano. This is the original wild high-mountain P73 oregano used traditionally as a healthy tea. It is handpicked from remote regions in the mountains. Plus, it's 100% wild. It's potent, without caffeine. That's why it is the healthiest tea available. Mega Orega Tea has the power of photonic energy—the synergy of mountain rock and sun. Drink your Mega Orega infusion daily for better health.
