

Directions: Take 20 or more drops of this potent extract under the tongue twice daily. For maintenance take at least 10 drops daily. Also add to water, juice, or milk.

Lingonol is truly a potent whole food made from wild raw lingonberries. This berry is the top source of antioxidants of all northern berries. These are wild forest berries, which are hand-picked and extracted through cold processing. No heat, solvents, or chemicals are used. Lingonberries are a type of wild cranberry and are highly nutritious.
